Description

This three-bedroom apartment in Nicosia's city center provides 145 m2 of internal space on the fifth floor of a residential building.

Built in 1981 and renovated in 2018, the layout is offered fully furnished. The interior features two bathrooms, and the living spaces take in views across the surrounding city.

Positioned on the top floor of a five-story building, the property is served by an elevator.

Nicosia's city center functions as the primary administrative and commercial district. Streets in the area carry pharmacies, food markets, government offices, and places to eat.
